MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR FOR PLANS AND POLICY, J-5

SUBJECT: Rules of Engagement for Protracted War at Sea

REFERENCE: (a) J-5 M 607-62 dated 30 October 1962

The instructions noted in reference (a), specifying the rules of engagement for protracted war at sea, appear on page 5 of the memo enclosed at the 27 October meeting of the Joint Planning Committee. If subsequent developments should necessitate modification of these instructions, please advise the Assistant Secretary of Defense (ISA) accordingly.

According to informal information, the State Department response to reference (d) of your memorandum is expected to be received in DOD within a few days. When it becomes available it will be forwarded at once to the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

ORIGINATOR AND EXTENSION: Captain J.H. Cotten, USN/ 55678 ju

REMARKS:

This memorandum serves as an acknowledgement (although none is formally required) of General Emrick's memo to you. It also advises him that State comments on JCS-proposed "Rules of Engagement for Sea-Borne Forces", requested over a year ago, are expected shortly.

Recommend you sign the attached memo.
